

SEE THE REDWOODS

For the most solitude we recommend visiting during weekdays, morning hours and late afternoons.

only 20 minutes north of the Golden Gate Bridge

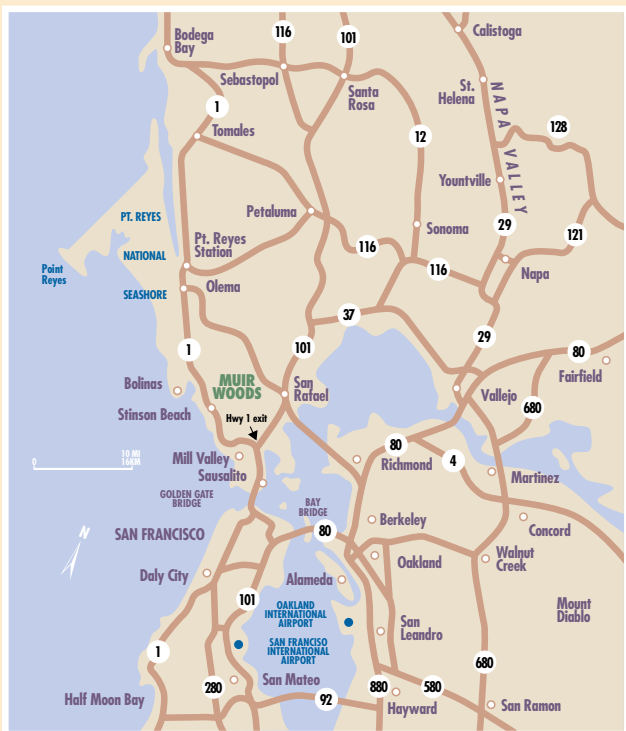

Muir Woods
NATIONAL MONUMENT

Only a few miles north of San Francisco, in an isolated canyon, grows the ancient coast redwood forest known the world over as Muir Woods. The park offers solitude, interpretive displays and programs, and numerous hiking trails. Come stroll through 1,000 year old giant trees towering 260 feet high and find out why famed naturalist John Muir called this...

“...the best tree-lovers monument that could possibly be found in all the forests of the world.”

LOCATION

Muir Woods National Monument, 12 miles north of the Golden Gate Bridge, is reached by 101 and 1. Roads to the park are steep and winding; vehicles over 35 feet long are prohibited. No public transportation serves the park. Commercial tours are available from San Francisco.

INFORMATION AND HOURS

The monument is managed by the National Park Service and is open year round from 8:00am to sunset. An entrance fee is charged. The monument is busiest during the weekends and the middle of the day. For more information, write or call Muir Woods National Monument, Mill Valley, CA 94941 • (415)388-2596. Visit the Muir Woods web site at www.nps.gov/muwo.

